

Route1 Receives 197 LPR Systems Order Under the State of California ALPR Contract

Toronto, Canada, June 28, 2021 - Route1 Inc. (OTCQB: ROIUF and TSXV: ROI) (the “Company” or “Route1”), an advanced North American provider of data-centric business empowerment solutions, today announced that its wholly owned subsidiary, PCS Mobile, received a purchase order from a State of California law enforcement agency to purchase 197 state-of-the-art Automatic License Plate Recognition (“ALPR”) systems that will be deployed in patrol vehicles. The revenue to be generated by Route1 from the 199 ALPR systems purchase order is approximately US $1.3 million and will be recognized as the ALPR systems are delivered to the client which is expected to start in the third quarter of 2021.

As announced in June 2020, Route1 was awarded a three-year contract with seven, one-year contract renewal option years by the State of California. The contract is to provide the State of California’s officers with a state-of-the-art ALPR system that will enhance officer safety and significantly improve operations. Route1’s ALPR system partner for this contract is Security Center AutoVu™ from Genetec Inc.

Agencies throughout the State of California and others can take advantage of this partnership to purchase ALPR systems for their agencies. In support of making this partnership accessible to statewide and other law enforcement agencies, PCS Mobile has provided a complete catalog of installation, support services and accessories for those agencies that utilize the contract, as well as trade-in capabilities to upgrade to the AutoVu system from their existing ALPR technology.

Security Center AutoVu™

Security Center AutoVu™ is an ALPR system that helps law enforcement agencies, commercial organizations and parking authorities locate vehicle of interest, solve cases and enforce parking regulations. Its line of specialized ALPR devices can be deployed in fixed and mobile applications and deliver high performance in the most demanding situations. Route1 has been the Genetec™ AutoVu Premier Partner of the Year for the last five years.
